AWAITS COURT'S DECISION ON HIS APPEAL TO-DAY.

Royal, an attorney of Richmond, Va., to-day asked permission of the Supreme Court to file as amious curies a brief in Tells His Washington Followers That a Modified Jali Sentence is Just as Bad the so-called tobacco trust cases, which in Principle as Full One Criticises will come up for argument on Thursday. will come up for argument on Thursday. The brief proposes a plan which its author the Judiciary as Being Only Human.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.-President Sem the satisfaction of every one and make such combinations beneficent instead of uel Gompers of the American Federa-tion of Labor was welcomed back from his European trip by a parade here to-night of 8,000 members of local labor unions and labor unions from Baltimore and other

The parade was reviewed by President Gompers from the balcony of a hotel on Fifteenth street, after which he went to Convention Hall, where he was welcomed of Congress, because it violates that provision of the Federal Constitution council of the federation and the head officers of trade unions. Gompers closed the programme with a speech in which he charged that the ignorance in Europe of the American labor movement was due to the "wilful suppression of the news, and the facts of the labor movement of America, or the wilful misrepresentation of that movement."

Which guarantees freedom of contract. The law is defective, he says, because it forbids restraints upon trade which are reasonable as well as those which are unreasonable. He maintains that it is perfectly lawful for any one man or set of men to control the output and the programme with a speech in which he

Gompers also referred in a caustic way to Justice Wright of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, who imposed the jail sentences on Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison in the Busics Stove and Range Company injunction suit.

Referring to the contempt proceedings now pending before the courts here, the pinion on which was expected to be handed down by the Court of Appeass to-day, President Gompers said:

"We have passed through a very crucial period in one part of our country, I refer to the instance which is possibly in yeakers this evening, for the court adjourned for a week. I was told that though a great affliction in the family of one of our honored Judges the court adjourned for a week. "All I can say in connection with that, all one can say with becoming dignity and an understanding of the gravity with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with which one must use words and the care with whic but I say this advisedly, with knowledge of the full responsibility that it conveys, that in so far as I am concerned the imposition of a lighter sentence would not alter the case one jot. Either we have free speech and free press in this country or we have not. The imposition of a fine of one solitary cent or imprisonment for one hour for the utterance of a man's conscience and the principles and the faith that is within him is the denial of free speech and free press."

In closing Gompers said that if the court should sustain in any part the sentences it would not make very much difference whether the imprisonment would be changed from twelve, nine and six months respectively to three, two and one minute. He said the fight would go on

CIVIC UNRIGHTEOUSNESS

Alleged in Complaint of Assemblyman Otto Against Superintendent Wilson.

Samuel Wilson, general superintendent of the Givic Righteousness Federation of Hudson county, was arrested in Jersey City yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace George C. L. Mase on complaint of Assemblyman Frederick Otto, a candidate for reelection on the Republican ticket, for the alleged violation of a law making it a misdemeanor for any person to print or distribute anonymous circulars reflecting on the character of a candidate for public office. Otto charges that Wilson was responsible for the recent distribution among church folks of an unsigned circular accusing him of being "an associate of law nullifiers and their representatives at Trenton."

Otto is a lawyer. He is the only Republican among the twelve Assemblymen who represent Hudson county in the lower house this year. He has pronounced views on the question of personal liberty in particular and the saloon traffic in general. His election last fell read to be the support of the so-called saloes vote. Otto is a lawyer. He is the only Republican among the twelve Assemblymen who represent Hudson county in the lower house this year. He has pronounced views on the question of personal liberty in particular and the saloon traffic in general. His election last fall was due in a large degree to the support of the so-called saloon vote. He led the New Idea ticket for nomination at the Republican primary election.

Wilson has been carrying on a crusade in Hudson county for several years to enforce the Sunday excise laws. He has sleuthed in diaguise and otherwise, and his sudden appearance in many saloons officially reported by the police as closed has severely jarred the proprietors and their patrons. The municipal authorities have not been convinced by him that it is their duty to aid him in enforcing the law.

"To permit Mr. Wilson's circular to go undenied and unresented." Assemblyman Otto said yesterday, "would be to place the seal of admission to his charges by my silence. I am a young man and have ambitions for a future. I cannot, therefore, permit any one to asperse my character and reputation and not defend myself. It is my intention to prove that Mr. Wilson was responsible for the issuance of the circular; that in doing so without placing his signature to the document he violated the law and that he therefore is the law nullifier."
